

Community Music Conservatory - 2022 Financial Aid Application

The Ocala Symphony Orchestra and Reilly Arts Center's mission is to connect as many people to music and the arts as possible. The Community Music Conservatory is a professionally run music school, and provides scholarship opportunities to students wishing to participate in group classes or private lessons. Scholarships are limited and awarded based on financial need and merit.

Full Year Conservatory Scholarship:

This is a full year (3 semester) tuition scholarship and instrument stipend. Funds from this scholarship are applied to a full year of any class, and included instrument stipend will be applied to the cost of obtaining an approved musical instrument.

Partial Year Conservatory Scholarship:

This is a four month (1 semester) tuition scholarship and instrument stipend. Funds from this scholarship are applied to a single semester of any class, and included instrument stipend will be applied to the cost of obtaining an approved musical instrument.

Partial Year Tuition Scholarship:

This is a four month (1 semester) tuition scholarship that students can apply to any class.

Instrument Scholarship Fund: (Amount up to you)

This scholarship fund is used on a case-by-case basis for students in need of financial assistance in obtaining a musical instrument of suitable quality, for use in any class in which they are enrolled.
